Boldly declaring the new things of Isaiah 42:9 and the greater works of John 14:12 in this rapture generation

RHEMA TALK FROM JIM'S JOURNAL

Thursday, April 4, 2013

"Yes, My son, your new writing assignment can be the most exciting one you have had. As a matter of fact, I have done it for you, except for some minor editing.

"When you get into the 'swing' of, or become accustomed to your new writing assignment, it will be easier to do and will allow you to minister to more of My people. That's the purpose of the bible, as well as the sequel to the bible.

"So get ready for this 'new venture' which will give you more flexibility in your daily routine.

"This will allow you to opt out of your hard copy preparation and mailing as you choose to do so.¹

"So, as you say, I now put the ball in your court as I observe the results for Myself and for My people.

"Thank you, My son, for your obedience."

Friday, April 5, 2013

"See to the necessary things. Your mind must be clear and unobstructed to do My work."

Saturday, April 6, 2013

"Yes, My son, you are carrying too much on your mind. You have taken over My job. So long as you are concerned – that is, worrying about these two matters, ¹The last "hard copy mailing" of my letters was letter No. 163 published on April 20, 2013. By then, most of my letters were sent by email and the hard copy mailing list had diminished to thirty copies.

Jim Ash letter No. 1 was published on September 1, 1997. Thus, over a sixteen year period of time (now seventeen plus years to the date of this letter), I have mailed my letters to many parts of the U.S. and to several parts of the world outside of the U.S. An estimated "ball park" cost of publishing and mailing my letters for these sixteen (now seventeen plus) years is about $45,000.00 counting the cost of the "in house" equipment and the "outside" duplication costs including mailing expense. That cost however has been a labor of love, expended day by day, week by week and year by year in the most interesting and exciting adventure any man ever embarked upon. My letters are only "the hem of the garment" compared to the approximate 1.7 million rhema words God has given me over these wonderful seventeen plus years and counting – and the best is yet to come!

you tie My hands. Isn't that what you told (Name omitted) ?

"So take your own advice. Leave these two things with Me. I can handle them both.

"And I am not concerned about mistakes either man has made. I formed both of them in the womb, So:

(1) "leave both men and their services to Me.

That way you can turn loose of them both and concentrate on what you are doing for Me, which is far more important to both you and to Me, and

(2) "ask Me what to do in both cases, and I will tell you, and

(3) "I am not concerned about what either or both men have done for you. If mistakes have been made, both men will rectify their mistakes. You just take care of your mistakes, and let Me handle theirs."

"Yes, My son, your three letters number 163, 164 and 165 will be in good condition when you finish with number 165.

"Then you may begin another new venture – that of publishing your journal with only minor editing. That will be a new endeavor, but an interesting and exciting one for both you and Me.

"This new writing will appear to be more extemporaneous than your past writing that has been carefully thought out for presentation.

"Your new writing will be more like 'rhema talk.'²

"None of My people have any idea of our 'rhema talk' over the past number of years, especially after November of 2005 when I opened the floodgates.³

²The first RHEMA TALK FROM JIM'S JOURNAL appeared in my letter No. 166, page 2, column 1, under the heading of Wednesday, March 30, 2011. This letter was published in June, 2013 and was the first of many to publish God's rhema words from my journal, as He instructed me on April 7, 2013.

³It was in November of 2005 that the Lord said to me in my quiet time before Him that morning, "Hereafter, when you come to spend quiet time before Me, come with no prayer agenda. If I want you to pray, I will tell you." Since that morning in November of 2005, I have been obedient. Each morning thereafter I have come before the Lord in my quiet time with Him with a bible (sometimes), a pen and a journal to take dictation. The floodgates have opened.

“No one, and I literally mean no one except Moses, has ever experienced ‘rhema talk’ like I have given you.

“What I gave Moses was to separate for Myself a people to establish a blood-line for the entrance of a Jewish Messiah.

“What I gave Paul was rhema talk to establish a fledgling church.

“What I have given you and what I am giving you is rhema talk to close the church age.

“Moses opened the age and the time of law to separate for Me a people divorced from the enemy.

“Jesus closed the age of law and opened the age of grace, mercy and love that supplanted and superceded law.

“Paul’s writing helped to establish and to confirm the church age in preparation for the Rapture, the Tribulation and for My millennial reign from Jerusalem, Israel.

“Your rhema talk in the hands of millions will let people know who I really am.

“No one on the face of the earth but you, My son, really knows Me and really knows who I am.

“You have become My herald to announce My presence, to announce My identification, to announce My bountiful gift of giving super abundantly, and at long last, to make known My New First Eternal Family of Two, then of three, as My beloved wife – this time, thrust into eternity forever.

“My son, Oh My son, you have allowed Me to be Myself, to be contented and fulfilled, for which I have longed for millennia.

“No one really knows who I am. You are appointed as My personal herald to tell the world and My poor church, that I am Jehovah God, who longs to be contented, satisfied and fulfilled by once again having a beloved wife on whom I may lavish with Myself, with My love and with My super abundance, for ALL THE WORLD to see.

“My son, I want the world and My people to know Me as I really am, and you are hereby appointed as My herald to do two things:

(1) “to tell My people clearly, plainly and truthfully, who I am, and

(2) “to make known for Me, My New First Eternal Family and wife, and My bountiful generosity.

“My son, as I showcase My New Eternal First Family as My perfect wife, I will cause abundance and untold wealth to flow into the hands of the husband, to further My kingdom and to become the beginning treasury for My Royal millennial reign from Jerusalem, Israel.

“The wealth I will allow to flow into his hands will be unprecedented, to include Solomon. One reason it will be unprecedented is because I know he will be faithful to Me and to My call on his life. Jesus proved the fidelity of My call on his (the husbands’s) life at the cross.

“For that reason, blessings from Me will become spectacularly known and seen world-wide. As both members of My New First Eternal wife announce to the world AND to my poor church, that the credit and the glory for such abundance is the result of faithfulness, obedience and proven trustworthiness to Me, multiplied millions will turn to Me.

“As you say, My son, ‘One test is worth a thousand expert opinions.’⁴ The husband and his new beautiful wife first, and then their new God Incarnate Son, will be My ‘one test’ that will supercede beyond imagination, the ‘expert opinions’ of mankind.

“No one knows who I really am.

“My son, let this be made known to the world and to My poor church – first with your writing, then with your presence, then by the emergence of My New First Eternal Family.

“That, My son, is My charge – yes, even My loving mandate to you this very morning, Sunday, April 7, 2013.

“No one else has what I have given you.

“Give it away, My son, give it away for Me.”

Thursday, April 11, 2013

“Yes, My son, you were up at 8:30 AM this morning and were rested. The ‘days off’ as you call them, are speaking to you. The rest is doing you good.

“Do not be concerned that you will lose the desire to write – to serve Me. That I will not allow you to do, I assure you.

“Now that We have that settled, see that you:

(1) “remember that you need rest, and

(2) “that We are inseparably hooked together.

“We are now One, My son, We are One for eternity. Transcribe and remember (reread) these

“I am now in control of your life for eternity.

“You see now that I am really in charge of your life. When you are rested, the results will become evident. As that occurs, then your desire to serve Me and do what I have called you to do will always return. Furthermore, that desire WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU because I, Myself, Jehovah God, will see to that, Myself.

“My son, My son, you are NOW an integral part of MY LIFE.

“So settle it forever in your mind and in your heart, that We are inseparably One – eternally One – for that NOW means more to Me than it does to you.

“In a very short time you will become more fully aware of that as I infuse you with Myself in the fullness thereof.

“Remember – rest, when and as needed, will return to you a new series of miracles as an encouragement to you to do so.”

Friday, April 12, 2013

“If you will release to Me the problem you asked the dental office to handle yesterday afternoon, I will handle that for you. Turn it over to Me.

“Now for the important stuff.

“Do you now understand who the husband of My New First Family really is?

“Greater than Abram, Moses, Enoch, Elijah and Paul ain’t bad!

“If for no other reason, as you write through your Notebook No. 16 and beyond, you are going to see his importance to Me really for the first time.

“My son, he will be number three in the Godhead!

“I, the Father, am number One, Jesus is number Two and he is number Three.

“To no one, and I mean to no one, including Jesus, have I ever given responsibility that I have given to him. He will become known world-wide in several areas while he is still alive in his earthly clothing. In this area of accomplishment, he will have exceeded EVERYONE including Jesus.

“So settle down and let Us – you and Me – have fun – exciting fun – as you embark on your second writing assignment for Me. You will not finish it before I release you, but that you have known for a long time.

“So settle down and settle into the most important writing assignment any man has been commissioned to do for Me.”

THE PROGRESSION OF JESUS AND THIRTEEN OTHERS TO FOLLOW HIM

“As an introduction to the following rhema word, please realize that for years I have written – have proclaimed in my writing – that the most important thing God has taught me is to listen to His voice 24/7 in this rapture generation. And as a reminder again, the term “rapture generation” is God’s term, not mine.

“To explain the significance of the term rapture generation, realize that the Rapture will occur in this forty-year generation and that we are living in the last quarter (last ten years) of this forty-year rapture generation.

“My letter No. 146 entitled, “GOD’S TIME CLOCK ON THE RAPTURE REVEALED” gives a closer date within the last ten years of this rapture generation. A copy of that letter may be obtained from my website: www.jimash3.com.

“Since the term rapture generation came from the mouth of God, I suggest that you pay close attention to what I have written on the Rapture, because preparation for that momentous event is the most important consideration for God’s people TODAY.

“By learning to hear the voice of God 24/7 and becoming obedient, faithful and trustworthy to His words of instruction, you may start down the road to becoming God Incarnate in this rapture generation!

“Once you begin that journey, it will become so interesting, exciting and fulfilling, you will NEVER be the same again. That is His will for your life today. Pursue it as you have the discretionary time to do so. Along the way, you will grow spiritually beyond your fondest dreams, and by the power of His personal rhema words, you will attain spiritual growth that is revealed in this letter.

“The choice is yours.

“The time is now.

“The blessings are innumerable.

“Now here is the body of this writing:

“The seed in Mary’s womb was fertilized by the Holy Spirit, the source of life in the Godhead. Jesus confirmed that the Holy Spirit is the source of life with these words: ‘It is the Spirit who gives life, the flesh profits nothing.’ Paul’s writing also confirms that the Spirit is the source of life with these words, ‘But if the Spirit of Him (God) who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He (the Spirit) who raised Jesus from the dead will also give life (eternal) to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.’ This is conclusive proof that it is the third Person of the Godhead who imparts life to man.

“Since God was His Father, Jesus was the Son of God. Since the Spirit fertilized the egg (initiated conception) in Mary’s womb instead of the sperm of man, Jesus was also filled with the Spirit at conception and therefore at His birth.

“When Jesus was twelve years old, He and His parents went up to Jerusalem on a feast day. After the feast day when His parents were on their way home, on the third day of their departure from Jerusalem, they discovered Jesus was not with the caravan with which they were traveling. They hastily returned to Jerusalem and found Jesus at the Temple, in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. Those who heard Him were astonished at His questions and at His answers.

“When His parents found Jesus, His mother rebuked Him for staying behind instead of going home with them. His answer to His mother’s rebuke was, “Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father’s business?”

“From the biblical record we find that both His mother and His (supposed) father did not understand what Jesus said – and for good reason – to be revealed later in this writing.

“Here is spiritual revelation concerning this incident with Jesus at twelve years of age:

“God, the Father, sent the Holy Spirit to fertilize the egg in Mary’s womb. Jesus was therefore Spirit filled at His birth, the birthmark or the imprint of His Father. In addition, He was born without the Adamic sin curse or sin nature for the same reason: because the Spirit fertilized the egg in Mary’s womb instead of the sperm of man. This is why God, the Father, said to me that Jesus was teachable at an early age, obviously, before the age of twelve years. This is reflected in the fact that at twelve years of age, the teachers in the Temple were astonished at His questions and at His answers.

“In view of these facts, we should not be surprised that the teachers were astonished at the questions and the answers of Jesus at twelve years of age. Jesus had three very important qualifications that none of the Temple teachers had. They were all born with the Adamic sin curse and sin nature and had not been baptized with the Holy Spirit and had not been taught to hear the voice of God 24/7. Jesus, therefore, at an early age, had three very important spiritual qualifications that His Temple teachers did not have. That is why they were astonished at what appeared to be the ‘precociousness’ of Jesus at twelve years of age.

“The main reason Jesus astonished the Temple teachers at an early age was that the Father had taught Him to hear His voice 24/7, just as He has taught me and the eleven other men and one woman, soon to be released as God Incarnate apostles. All thirteen of us have traveled the same road that Jesus traveled, and passed the same tests that Jesus passed, to become God Incarnate apostles. It is impossible to remain drastically unchanged when you hear the voice of God 24/7 and become obedient thereunto. Said in the positive, once you learn to listen for and to hear the voice of God 24/7, and become obedient, faithful and trustworthy, your exponential spiritual growth will astonish everyone, to include both yourself and your teachers. Jesus was not an exception to the rule, He was the rule with one possessed of His qualifications, even at an early age.

“The remarkable thing about Jesus is that neither His mother nor His (supposed) father had any idea what He was talking about when He said, ‘Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father’s business?’ Had the parents of Jesus known what the Spirit has revealed to me (and the twelve others) about Jesus, they would have understood, at least to some degree, His supposed ‘precociousness.’

“Never before had a virgin given birth to a man-child who was (1) Spirit filled from birth and who was (2) born without the Adamic sin curse or sin nature who was (3) taught at an early age to hear the voice of God 24/7 in order to be (4) taught the Six Measure Standard in preparation to (5) being released as a God Incarnate Messiah, apostle, priest, prophet and King.

“Although Mary treasured ‘these things’ in her heart, according to the biblical record, she didn’t have a clue as to what Her Son was to accomplish for both God and for man until the Pentecost following the resurrection of Her Son. Had it been any other way, Jesus could not have accomplished His mission for God and for man.

“It is for this reason that the name of Jesus, Mary’s Son, is above every name, including that of the Father, who was the One who sent Jesus to the cross to cover His (the Father’s) mistake in giving to Lucifer the unalterable, immutable governing authority in heaven and earth.

“It is extremely significant to note that learning to hear the voice of God 24/7, about which I have written for years, has specifically placed me and twelve others in the same spiritual condition and position that Jesus was in, both at twelve years of age and at about thirty years of age, prior to His baptism by John.

“First, each of us (the thirteen) has been cleansed retroactively back to conception in our mother’s womb (as was Jesus), as we were led by the Spirit to pray the nine-point prayer as recorded in Jim Ash letter No. 161, beginning on page 5, column 1. Under these conditions, the prophetic word that followed the nine-point prayer (page 5, column 2), is also applicable to the thirteen. Secondly, each of the thirteen has been Spirit baptized as Jesus was. Thirdly, each of the thirteen has been taught the definition of sin and of righteousness in order to live a sinless life (as Jesus lived) prior to our being released.

“The thirteen of us, therefore, meet the same three spiritual qualifications that Jesus met prior to His baptism by John, after which He became God Incarnate, since in Him then, dwelt the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

“As I have written previously, when Jesus began His visible ministry, the fullness of the Godhead bodily was God, the Father, God, the Word, and God, the Spirit. It was only after His resurrection that the Godhead became God, the Father, God, the Son, inclusive of the eternal Word, with whom he became One, and God, the Spirit. Jesus did not become God until after His resurrection, at which time the Godhead was reconfigured to include the Son, who became one with the eternal Word.

“As I have written many times before, all thirteen of us have become prepared to be released as God Incarnate apostles in the same way that Jesus was prepared to become the Messiah of mankind. This is why each of us will be able to fulfill John 14:12 in order to do greater works than Jesus did.”

Tuesday, April 16, 2013

“The Father, the Son and the Spirit are all spirit persons.

“When you are baptized with the Holy Spirit, this means you are Spirit filled. Being Spirit filled means that you have within you the Holy Spirit as a spirit, but not as a person. The person of the Holy Spirit will not enter an unclean body because One who is pure has no fellowship with one who is impure.

“The Spirit of Christ and the Spirit of God are both the Holy Spirit and are the same as the Spirit. When one is baptized with the Holy Spirit, he becomes Spirit filled, that is, filled with the Spirit as a spirit, but not with the person of the Spirit, because He, as a person, cannot enter an impure body.

“God, the Father, God, the Son and God, the Spirit, are all three spirit persons.

“When one is baptized with the Holy Spirit, he has within him the spirit of the person of the Spirit, but not the person of the Holy Spirit.

“Each of the three persons of the Godhead is a spirit being. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God and the Spirit of Christ because the Holy Spirit has no authority of His own, but He simply speaks what He hears (John 16:3).

“When you are baptized with the Holy Spirit, you are filled with the Spirit who is a spirit being. But when you are baptized with the Holy Spirit, you have within you the spirit of the Spirit, but not the person of the Spirit. Before the person of the Spirit may enter you, you must be cleansed from conception in the womb, because one who is pure may not have fellowship with one who is impure. Light has no fellowship with darkness.

“When one becomes God Incarnate, he becomes filled with the fullness of the Godhead bodily, meaning, fullness of the body, or the person, of Jehovah God, the Father, to include the person of the Son and the person of the Spirit (three persons – Colossians 2:9).

“One who is God Incarnate is filled with the fullness of the Godhead bodily (three persons), meaning the three persons of the Trinity, not the Spirit of the three persons.

“The Spirit of God and the Spirit of Christ are the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit may indwell you, but the person of the Holy Spirit may not indwell you until you are cleansed back to conception in the womb.

“The fullness of the Godhead bodily means the spirit body of three persons of the Trinity.

A person	A person	A person
The Father	The Son	The Spirit
A spirit being	A spirit being	A spirit being

“Having the Spirit of God or the Spirit of Christ or the Spirit in you refers to the Holy Spirit as a spirit being, but not as a person.

“The Spirit is the communicator or the communications channel of God and of Christ, through whom comes the words of or the direction (s) of both God and Christ, since they are of one accord.

“As long as you retain the Adamic sin curse and sin nature, the Holy Spirit may indwell you as a spirit, but not as a person.

“The authority figures in the Godhead, that is, the person of God, the person of Christ (inclusive of the person of the eternal Word) and the person of the Holy Spirit, cannot indwell an unclean body, meaning a body that has not been cleansed from conception in the womb by the nine-point cleansing prayer.”

“Jesus, Himself, said, “God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth” (John 4:24), which confirms that God is a spirit being.

“Jesus was not a spirit being until after His resurrection. Therefore, He could not have been God during His three and one-half year visible ministry, because at that time He was God Incarnate in a physical body.

“From seminaries, bible colleges and from pulpits, we are taught that Jesus was God from the moment of His conception or from the moment of His birth.

“For example, I heard a highly visible pastor who also has a Television ministry, say, ‘When Mary changed the diaper of Jesus, she changed the diaper of God.’ This could not be true because Jesus was not a spirit being until after His resurrection.

“The obvious conflict lies in the correct understanding of John 1:14 which states that:

“And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.”

“The apparent teaching of some seminaries and bible colleges and many of those who stand in pulpits, is that Jesus was God either at conception or at birth. It is easy to draw that conclusion so long as you remain in the Pentecost Method. Bible facts without revelation seem to confirm this.

“Neither of these two assumptions (at conception or at birth) could be true in the light of John’s writing, for he quotes Jesus as having said that God is Spirit – not a flesh and blood physical being as Jesus was until His resurrection.

“Therefore, to set the record straight forever, the eternal Word became flesh (entered Jesus) for the first time immediately after Jesus was baptized by John when the three persons (not spirits) of the Godhead entered His physical body for the first time, at which time He became God Incarnate.

“When on the cross, Jesus cried out, “My God, My God, why have you forsaken Me?” it was because God had withdrawn the Godhead (Father, Word, Spirit) from Him.

“At His death, the spirit and soul of Jesus reunited with the Godhead (Father, Word, Spirit) and descended into the lower parts of the earth to preach to the spirits in prison. After three days, the spirit and soul of Jesus, together with the Godhead (Father, Word, Spirit), reentered the dead body of Jesus at which time He was resurrected as a spirit being and as the second person of the reconfigured Godhead: God the Father, God the Son (who became One with the eternal Word at His resurrection) and God the Spirit.

“Hence, Jesus became God the Son at His resurrection and not before.

“When Jesus said, for example, “Before Abraham was, I am,” those were words given to Jesus by the Father and Jesus spoke them with His mouth. Those words were true of the eternal Word within Jesus, who was one with Jesus during His visible ministry and who became one with Him eternally at His resurrection. It therefore was the eternal Word within Jesus (who was one with Jesus) who said, ‘Before Abraham was, I am.’ That is why those words were truth when spoken by Jesus.

“Therefore, to set the record straight, when the eternal Word became flesh (entered Jesus) and dwelt among us, was after Jesus was baptized by John, and not before. At that time, the three persons of the Godhead (Father, Word, Spirit) entered the physical body of Jesus and He became God Incarnate.

“When Jesus said, “Before Abraham was, I am,” He spoke words the Father gave Him, which were truth concerning the Godhead and particularly the Word within Him. The reason Jesus spoke as though He was God during His visible ministry was because He was God Incarnate, not because He was God, for God (the Father) is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship Him (the Father) in spirit and truth. Jesus became God, the Son (inclusive of the Word), at His resurrection and not before.

“When people attempted to treat Jesus as God during His visible ministry, He always deferred to the Father and said to worship Him. Another example of this are these words of Jesus, ‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name.’

“Here is an explanation of the way Jesus was ‘before the foundation of the world’ (Earth Two):

“First, there was no need for a Messiah as savior of the world on Earth One, because everyone born of woman on Earth One was God Incarnate for several thousand years. Before he fell, Lucifer had all authority in heaven and earth, just as Jesus now has all authority in heaven and earth.

“Therefore, the term ‘before the foundation of the world,’ means before the foundation of, or before the beginning reconstruction of Earth Two, the first inhabitants of which were Adam and Eve. When it is said of Jesus, for example, that He was before the foundation of the world, or that He was crucified before the foundation of the world, this means that Jehovah God had planned for the Messiah to be crucified on a Roman cross before He began the foundation of (or before He began the reconstruction of) Earth Two (Gen. 1:3). He could not have meant before the foundation of Earth One because there was no need for a Messiah prior to the foundation of Earth One.”

“The Holy Spirit descended in bodily form on Jesus after John’s baptism.⁵ Luke is the only Gospel writer who mentions the word “bodily” in the ordination of Jesus after the baptism of John, the baptizer. ‘In bodily form’ means the person of the Holy Spirit, not the spirit of the Spirit.

“John, the baptizer, leaped in Elizabeth’s womb (John was conceived six months before Jesus) when Mary, who was pregnant with Jesus, arrived for a visit. Under the anointing of the Holy Spirit, Elizabeth prophesied at the arrival of Mary, who stayed three months with her cousin Elizabeth, and then had the courage to return home, pregnant with the future Messiah, who was conceived before she was married to Joseph, her husband.”⁶ [The distance from Nazareth to ⁵See Luke 3:22.

⁶See Luke 1:39-44. Gossip was no different in the year 5 B. C. than it is in the year 2014 A. D. “He got her pregnant and they had to get married,” was the probable gossip then as it is now. I believe this is why Mary “left town” soon after she and Joseph reconciled concerning Mary’s pregnancy.

Hebron (in Judea) is about 70 miles.]

Later at 12:10 PM

“My son, you now may proceed with your writing. Since Luke reported that the Holy Spirit bodily entered My physical body after My baptism by John, this means that I did not previously have within Me the person of the Holy Spirit. So, however you treat My conception and birth will be satisfactory for the present. Either way you treat My conception and birth as connected with the Holy Spirit, no one, and I mean no one else, will know the difference between the two. You, My son, are in NEW TERRITORY no one else is privy to.

“Here is another proof that being filled with the Spirit does not mean Incarnated with the person of the Spirit: Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit⁷ before she prophesied. Since she was born under the Adamic sin curse and sin nature, being filled with the Holy Spirit could not mean she was filled with the person of the Holy Spirit, for one must be cleansed from conception in the womb in order for a person of the Godhead to enter his or her physical body.”

“Yes, My son, you have discovered a new ‘toy,’ haven’t you?⁸ Now you know why I have said to you repeatedly, that I am more impressed with your writing than you are.

“As you write through your Notebook No. 16 and beyond, many of your readers will begin to understand who I am for the first time.

“My son, no one, and I mean no one else, understands that ‘rhema talk’ is My way of life for everyone of My people who will learn to listen for My voice 24/7.

“You learned to walk in the Listening Method or learned to hear ‘rhema talk’ exclusively for your ‘prayer time’ over an eighteen month period of time so that you were gradually delivered or transitioned into ‘rhema talk’ 24/7. Then is when the floodgates opened.

“My son, no one has been given what I have given to you. I have told you things no one else alive is privy to because you are My writer – My herald – for this rapture generation.

“You already know these things, but I need to remind you of them occasionally.

“You will enjoy publishing ‘rhema talk.’”

⁷See Luke 1:41.
