Boldly declaring the new things of Isaiah 42:9 and the greater works of John 14:12 in this rapture generation

An Introductory Explanation:

My last letter, No. 212, was published on February 15, 2015 in anticipation of being released into my ministry. Since then, I have been busy writing. In preparation for that event (my release), which I had looked forward to for many months, I began writing a series of letters to be published after my release into ministry with revelation that must not be known until after my release. There are 76 pages and 45,543 words in those six letters written to be post-release published.

Then a disappointment occurred – another postponement of my release, which means I had something else to learn.

This accounts for the lapse of time between the publishing of my letter No. 212 and this one, No. 213. I plan to hold those six letters for a post-release publishing date. But in the meantime, I will do some pre-release writing in anticipation of and in preparation for the greatest harvest of souls the world has seen. During those few remaining years, the abundant harvest will engulf fifty-percent of the unsaved, and you (most of you) and I will be right in the middle of the excitement.

And now to the textual content of this letter:

Signs, wonders and miracles will accompany and confirm the activities of apostles, trained for these special events, who will fulfill the words of Jesus in John 14:12:

“Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father.”

This prophecy by Jesus has not been fulfilled, although you may hear others say to the contrary, since through the years there have been miracles done through the faith of believers, including resurrections. But they did not and have not occurred as Jesus did them. He never prayed and asked God to perform a miracle. He merely spoke or acted them into existence without failure. No one else has yet to come forth with such anointed authority and power.

But that is about to change. This prophecy of Jesus will be fulfilled before He comes again, and of that I am certain. Many of you who read my letters shall be witnesses to such authority. So I shall continue to write one of my letters occasionally until I am released. Then the fun begins. At that time my six pre-release written letters will be published simultaneously. And you may be surprised at the content of some of that writing, as well as the activities surrounding my release.

Jesus was God Incarnate during His visible ministry (Colossians 2:9). This means that the three persons of the Godhead at that time, God, the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit, indwelt Him bodily. The only way John 14:12 may be fulfilled is for the new apostles, whom I believe may begin their ministry later this year, will need to be anointed with a greater anointing than Jesus had. Impossible, you say? Not so. The Godhead today is God, the Father, the Son (inclusive of the eternal Word with whom Jesus became one at His resurrection) and the Holy Spirit. The first time the Godhead (the Trinity) is mentioned inclusive of the Son is after the resurrection of Jesus in Matthew's account of the Great Commission as recorded in Matthew chapter 28:

18 “And Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, ‘All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.

19 ‘Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 ‘teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo I am with you always, even to the end of the age.’” Amen.

Prior to the resurrection of Jesus, the Godhead was God (the Father), the Word and the Holy Spirit. After His resurrection the reconfigured Godhead¹ became God, the Father, the Son (inclusive of the Word) and the Holy Spirit, as Matthew confirms. One of the names of Jesus is “The Word of God,” as confirmed in Revelation 19:13.

The inclusion of “the Son” in the Godhead (which occurred after His resurrection) makes the Godhead (the Trinity) greater after the resurrection of Jesus. Since the new apostles will be God Incarnate to include “the Son,” they will have a greater anointing than Jesus had during His visible ministry.

This is really a minor point, however. The thing that will allow the new God Incarnate apostles to do both the works and the greater works than Jesus did is because they will be totally unrestricted in their activities, whereas Jesus was limited in His visible ministry that had to be shrouded in types, parables and figures in order to keep secret from the enemy His real ministry identity.

Jesus has not always existed, as some understand the bible. Earth One existed for several thousand years of unmeasured time under the successful perfect rulership of Lucifer when man (both male and female) were God Incarnate as Jesus was in His visible ministry. There was no need for a Savior of mankind until Lucifer failed and took for himself Earth One and its inhabitants.

Only at Lucifer’s failure did the need for a Savior of mankind exist. But at God’s destruction of Earth One in His fierce anger,² God had not then planned how He was to redeem mankind and the world with a Messiah, which would come later. This eliminates the erroneous conclusion that Jesus has always existed.

Those of you who read my letters may also have opportunity to personally participate in the greatest harvest of souls the world has seen in preparation for the Rapture. It’s just that close. That’s why we are living in the most interesting and exciting time to be alive on planet earth.

The Jewish leaders were given the Law of Moses more than fourteen hundred years before Jesus began His short visible ministry. They had meticulously tabulated the six hundred thirteen laws into at least thirty-three different subjects or categories.

The writing of the prophets and the law of Moses, therefore, was the “completed” written word of God for the Jews when Jesus was released into His ministry.

²See Jeremiah 4:23-26.

Because it had been several hundred years since God had sent a prophet to Israel, the Jews believed the writing of Moses and the prophets were their permanent, complete, written word of God.

Then a young Jewish rabbi about thirty years of age came preaching and teaching a radical new doctrine. His teaching of love, grace, mercy and forgiveness completely disrupted the Jewish community leadership. Their thinking was, why wasn’t the written record of Moses and the prophets enough?

Their “bible” surely was the word of God and was sufficient without some young “rebel-rousing” Jewish rabbi adding something – adding anything – new, because the old wine always tastes better than the new.

He actually said that He fulfilled the law (all 613) and the prophets by doing to others what you would like them to do to you (Matthew 7:12).

The Jewish leaders were so sure of themselves that they had that young Jewish rabbi crucified on a Roman cross as a religious heretic.

A similar scenario is now about to break forth upon the Christian leaders of today.

They have had their “bible” now – that includes the teaching of the young Jewish rabbi – for about nineteen hundred years. “Their” bible is complete and if you don’t believe it, they can prove it with inspired words from that bible itself – so they say – just like the Jews who crucified the young Jewish rabbi.

The new wine offered to the Jewish leaders has aged – has mellowed into the old wine of convention, which allows for no change without rebellion – this time a verbal rebellion against anyone who seeks to add to or take from anything contained in “their completed text,” and they can prove it to you from the inspired words of their bible. New wine never tastes as good as the old.

But contrary to the Christian authorities of today, we must have a new wine writing to complete another new-wine addition to the bible as it is now written. While the present bible (inclusive of the Savior and His new wine additions) is sufficient for life and Godliness on the earth, it leaves some “gaps” that must be filled in.

GAP ONE

The ideal perfect God Incarnate, co-equal life of Adam and Eve in Eden’s abundance that was lost through sin must be restored in it’s entirety, meaning, that the curses pronounced on Eve, on Adam and on their abundance must be reversed – must be restored in their entirety. (See Genesis 3:16-19).

GAP TWO

Sin in Eden surrendered the rulership of the world to Satan *again*³ through the authority given to him by God as ruler of Earth One, since the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable,⁴ even to angels.

Satan still rules the world that God sent His only begotten Son to save, as confirmed with these words of Jesus in John's Gospel:

12:31 "Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out."

14:30 "I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing on Me."

16:11 ".....of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged."

Satan's rulership of this world has not changed since Jesus walked and ministered for three and one-half years in the Jerusalem, Judea and Samaria area of this world.

Both of these "gaps" must be closed before the Rapture can occur because otherwise Satan would end up as victor over Jehovah God, and that will not happen.

Through God's New First Eternal Family, both "gaps" will be closed and eliminated with the complete restoration of everything lost in Eden and with a written record confirming that glorious restoration, thus says the Lord God. That's why the present bible is not complete. And that's why the old wine drinkers will have difficulty in accepting the new wine of God's complete victory over Satan with a written sequel to the present bible confirming.

³For several thousand years of unmeasured time, Lucifer ruled Earth One perfectly with "all authority in heaven and earth" given to him by God, until Lucifer's failure, which caused the complete obliteration of Earth One "in God's fierce anger." See Jeremiah 4:23-26.

"My thoughts are higher than your thoughts. My ways are higher than your ways (Isaiah 55:8, 9). This does not mean that you cannot have My thoughts nor does it mean that you cannot have My ways. It just means that you can have My thoughts when you learn to hear My voice 24/7 that I might give them to you. It means when you learn to hear My voice 24/7, I can direct you into My ways that are better than your ways.

"My son, that is what you have been doing for many years.

"When you asked Me to use you to glorify My Name on 1/15/96, My intensive preparation in your life began.⁵

"On 9/27/96 I furthered your preparation to do as you asked on 1/15/96. Then is when I began to train you to be Mine exclusively, and on 11/18/2005, I relieved you of all of your prayers to Me so that I could pray to you. Thereafter you (We) were on The (My) Way."

An interruption

I want to stop here and interrupt this rhema word to interject something important concerning the date of *September 27, 1996: In my quiet time before the Lord that morning I read in John 20 where the resurrected Jesus breathed on the eleven disciples and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." I then promptly laid my hands on an imaginary globe of the earth and said, "I forgive the sins of everyone who has lived on the earth from Adam to the cross; from the cross to the present time; everyone alive on the earth in every city, county, state, nation, continent and island to include every car, truck, plane, boat or ship world-wide, and everyone who shall live on the earth throughout eternity, in Jesus name, amen.

The Lord then spoke to me in that still small voice and said, "That's what Jesus did."

I was then immediately lifted in the spirit to a place I had never been before. It was like getting into an elevator in a high-rise building and pushing – not the top floor number – but “P,” the penthouse – a luxuriously appointed flat or apartment built on the roof of the building.

⁵Notice that the Lord began my intensive preparation to serve Him on 1/15/96 when I asked Him to use me to glorify His name. That's more than nineteen years ago. As you remain faithful, the longer the preparation, the greater the ministry. The Lord responded to my request to glorify His name. The Lord longs to hear from each of us, "Here am I Lord, use Me."

As I passed each floor, I realized that I was being lifted spiritually – or carried by the Lord – to yet a higher place or position where I had never been before.

When I arrived at the top, it was so real that my first inclination was to look around at my new surroundings to see what was there, because I realized that I had never been there before. And then the vision was over.

Although I was puzzled by the vision and did not know what it meant, I knew I had been lifted to a place in prayer where I had never been before.

A few days later I went to the Prayer Chapel at Hillcrest Church where we were members and grabbed a bunch of prayer requests from the file and went to the front pew to sit down, lay hands on each prayer request and pray for the written need.

At the same time there were five people in the room to the right as you walked into the foyer of the Prayer Chapel, who were doing the same thing. I could not understand their words, but I could tell by the intensity of their prayers that they knew how to pray. My thought was to tell those five people (four women and one man) of my prayer-vision-experience and ask them if they had any understanding of the meaning.

When their prayer time was finished, that’s what I did. They responded graciously, and I began to tell them of my vision. I got only a few words out of my mouth and the tears began to flow. I became so emotional in my tears that I could not continue to relate my experience.

Yes, I was embarrassed and ashamed as I stood before those five people whom I did not know, in tears, unable to relate my experience. I wanted to fall through the floor or evaporate, but it didn’t happen.

The five realized this was Spiritual and of the Lord and immediately gathered around me, laid hands on me and began to pray and prophesy. There were three or four prophecies and one encouraging scripture read from the Psalms concerning God’s bottle room for tears. One woman said, “I have never prophesied in public before, but this is so strong, I believe I should give it,” and she prophesied over me.

As they were praying and prophesying over me the tears ceased, and I was again in control of my emotions. When they finished ministering to me, I asked for their names which they wrote on a slip of paper and gave me. I then thanked them and left.

Although none of the five prayer warriors could give me any explanation of my prayer-vision experience, I realized that it was important and probably portended God’s use of me in the future. And I was right.

That prayer-vision experience is when the Lord said He began to train me to be His exclusively.

End of interruption.

Back to Rhema Talk

“September 27, 1996, is when I instructed you to set aside the first part of your day so I could pray to you. Over the course of My call on your life, I have changed My objective for your life three times. Each time was an upgrade over My previous call on your life. On 11/18/05⁶ is when you truly became Mine so that each day thereafter I could pray to you.

“Nothing happens until someone prays. When that Someone becomes Me, as Jehovah God, is when I am totally in charge of that life so that I may personally direct it Myself.

“Each of the thirteen new apostles will be infused with all the fullness of the Godhead bodily for eternity as a permanent change.

“The husband in My New First Family is My second ‘only’ begotten Son, in whom I am well pleased. In a similar manner, his new beautiful wife will be My first ‘only’ begotten Daughter, in whom I am well pleased. As I led her through the nine-point forgiveness prayer back to conception in her mother’s womb, and then later filled Her with all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, she became My only begotten Daughter in whom I am well pleased, for eternity.

⁶In June of 2004, at the direction of the Lord, I was praying about two hours a day, much of which was very effective world-wide spiritual warfare over nations where there was civil war, civil unrest, civil disobedience or disturbance of any type. Then over the next eighteen months to November 18, 2005, God gradually diminished my prayer time talking to Him or doing battle with the enemy, to keeping quiet while He talked to me. On that morning of 11/18/05, He said to me, “Hereafter, when you come to spend quiet time with Me, come with no prayer agenda. If I want you to pray, I will tell you.” Since that morning, I have come before Him each day with a pen, a journal and at times with a bible, with no agenda but to listen and record rhema words from the mouth of God. That time with Him has proven to be a treasure trove.

“Then when My second ‘only’ begotten Son, marries My first ‘only’ begotten Daughter, they will give birth to My first born Grandson on the earth, and, at that time, those three will each become ‘firsts’ for eternity.”

“The husband of My New First Family will become the completion of what I started in Jesus. His new wife will not become the ‘mother of God,’ as it is erroneously said of Mary, the mother of Jesus, but she will become the ‘mother of a God Incarnate infant,’ for she will give birth to an infant Son, who, from conception in her womb, will be filled with all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. She will literally become ‘the mother of a God Incarnate infant’ since within her will be the fullness of the Godhead bodily, who, in agreement with the fullness of the Godhead bodily within her husband, will allow him to impregnate her with sperm, anointed, not with the Spirit, but with the fullness of the Godhead bodily. That infant will therefore be filled with all the fullness of the Godhead bodily from conception.

“She (the wife) will literally be the first woman ever to give birth to a God Incarnate infant who will be born into eternity, who will not die, but will be raptured.”

“My son, when I fill the husband and the wife of My New First Family with all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, as that occurs, they will be transformed physically into their perfect eternal state, never ever to age or change except at the Rapture, which will be only a change of clothing.

“In like manner, their newborn Son will come forth from the womb of his mother as a God Incarnate infant, as My first eternal Grandson on the earth. He, of course, along with His parents, will not die, but will be raptured. He will mature into a young man, and His body will be His eternal existent body.

“Now you know what I started in My New First Family. This is why both the husband and the wife will be in My eternally reconfigured Godhead. Their new Son will also have some recognition as the first born into My eternal family,⁷ since everyone on Earth

⁷This is the first time God has revealed that His first new Grandson will be “born into His eternal family,” which portends prominence and preeminence for that young man.

One failed.

“And there you have a very short, abbreviated, synoptic overview of My New First Family, that is, who the husband is, who the wife is, and who their God Incarnate Son is. And that is just for starters!

“This, My son, may be used to encourage others to learn to hear My voice and to set aside time at the beginning of every day to listen to My prayers.

“The new Son in My New First Family will be the only one taken in the Rapture who was born on the earth as a God Incarnate infant. He will also be a celebrated young man to be carefully guarded by his mother and father.

“This young man will be reared in a perfect environment because all of His activities and decisions will be directed by Jehovah God within His parents. No one will have lived on the earth as this child will live. That is why He will be My Grandson, says Jehovah God to you this afternoon (at 12:15 PM).

“My son, all three members of My New First Family are, that is, they will be unique in My kingdom. Others born under similar conditions on Earth One fell and were destroyed in My fierce anger.

“This is why the husband, the wife and the (My) new Grandson, of My New First Family are so special to Me as Jehovah God. Those three represent My perfection for eternity for the first time ever. While that was true of Jesus, He was My first necessary installment. Then those three in My New First Family (to include their new Son) are the final installments in My initial restoration process for man and the earth.

“So My New First Family must get used to accolades and adoration. Both are coming their way. As they already know, their response will be all praise, glory and honor to Jehovah God for arranging this through His only begotten Son. To Him, also, therefore, be praise, glory and honor throughout all eternity!

“My son, only after the husband in My New First Family is raptured, will he begin to realize what he and his new family mean to Me as Jehovah God. But there will be plenty of time for that.

“My son, just content yourself now with what I as Jehovah God, have called you to do.”

Monday, December 26, 2011

“Yes, My son, what you wrote in some of your letters partially became true. But instead of all thirteen apostles, only one was released and that one was a woman. So your prophetic words partially came to pass.

“She has become the portent of the twelve to follow.

“And yes, the Trinity has four Persons: the Father, the Word, the Son and the Spirit. The Son happens to be inclusive of the eternal Word as the second person in the Trinity. This means with the addition of two more persons, the total becomes six.

“I will explain that further at a later time.

“Your likening the evil spirit world to the good spirit world is good.⁸ Demons may not control or possess a Spirit filled believer but may oppress and influence a believer, many times unknowingly. This is a good point to make.

“Yes, My son, your body must be cleansed of sin – all sin – back to conception in the womb before I may enter you in the fullness of the Godhead bodily. You now are at the same position Jesus was in before He was filed with the Godhead. That is the only way I may enter you in all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

“Thereafter, you are perfect and become perfected as you live daily, guided and directed by Myself within you, just as Jesus was in His visible ministry.

Concluded at 1:15 PM.

Later:

“The reason the whole world lies in darkness is ⁸The evil spirit world and the good spirit world operate on the same principle. Both sides may send a thought to your mind to consider. Thoughts of the Holy Spirit when retained and meditated on, enter the heart, which is man’s compass, to remain there. Likewise, the enemy’s thoughts will be demonic darts to your mind to consider. When they are retained and meditated on, they will also enter the heart, which is man’s compass, to guide him. The enemy’s darts will always be under one of three classifications: lust of the flesh, lust of the eyes and the pride of life (see 1 John 2:15, 16). This dictates a need for knowledge of the word of God so as to recognize the enemy’s temptations. Christianity is faith-based but is also education-based.

Thoughts are the language of both the evil spirit world and the good Spirit world. Hence, the need to identify thoughts that come to our mind to accept the good and reject the bad, similar to the teaching of Jesus about both good and bad fish in the net.

because the world depends on created light in order to see. If created light was withdrawn from the world (meaning the sun, moon and stars that create and regulate light, time and the seasons), the world would be in darkness.

“The world, therefore, lies in spiritual darkness in the absence of the light of God that casts no shadows.⁹

“The whole world will therefore lie in darkness until sin, death and evil are removed from the earth. Then the earth will need to be cleansed or purged of contamination by fire before the New Jerusalem will descend on a new earth once more ready and receptive to the light of God and the Lamb thereof as the Lamp.

“My son, the key in being contented in doing a major work for Me is not to grow weary in well-doing – especially when the training-preparation time seems to be too long – in your case, more than nineteen years now at ninety-five years of age.

“As you know, seven attributes of God are in each of the rhema words that I give you. Each of those words are residual and cumulative that literally ‘grow you up spiritually’ while you rest as I do the work.

“Learning to hear My rhema words daily is a new wine characteristic of the latter half of this Rapture generation. This means many people alive today will witness the rapture of the Church prophesied by Paul in 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18.

“That also means this is the most interesting and exciting time for the Church – that is, for those who know God the Father as the only true God and Jesus Christ whom He has sent, as Jesus explained in John 17:3.”

This relationship is readily available to everyone whose heart so desires. Call on Him today. Surrender your life to Him in preparation for the soon-coming greatest homecoming of the ages. Amen.

⁹The reason God’s light casts no shadows is because His light is omnipresent, meaning present everywhere simultaneously, or that God’s light literally surrounds any object illuminated by His light. Only directional light casts shadows. God’s omnipresent light or surround light casts no shadows. Sunlight is directional and therefore casts shadows. The sun, moon and stars were created because of sin beginning with Genesis 1:3 and will be completely destroyed after the Great White Throne judgment. See 2 Peter 3:7-13, for a description of the destruction of the earth, the stars and our solar system, in preparation for the descent of the New Jerusalem on a new earth, as confirmed in Revelation 21:1, 2.
