THE SECOND DEATH

My introduction to this letter

The content of this letter will be a departure from the usual format or content of my past writing. The reason for this change is that God has given me a specific mandate to write this letter to make the existence of hell graphically real according to the word of God.

Some of the things I have written in this letter are not pleasant to read or to think about, but I admonish you strongly to please read this letter through very carefully so as to know the truth of God, for it was Jesus, Himself, who said, "You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."<sup>1</sup>

Please read the footnotes concurrently with the text reference.

The Lord's introduction to this letter

"My son, My precious son, hold on for only a little longer. Victory is now in sight. You are rereading Mary K. Baxter's (MKB) book on 'Hell' at My request to impress upon you the very importance of your writing on The Second Death.

"My son, Oh My son, so few people of the earth have any idea of what hell is. Hell is the domain of Satan and his angels and all who follow him. Hell is not only the antithesis of heaven, it is so much more than that. There is a great need – and that is My great need – for a writing that will be vividly descriptive of hell which will be more widely distributed than the writing of MKB or Choo Nam Thomas (CNT). And you happen to be that person.

"Take your time in writing this one. You have My authority to quote MKB and CNT. My words are truth and you have discovered the value of truth.

"And here is another thing about this writing:

"The Holy Spirit revival now has penetrated the masses. The faith message, the feel good about yourself message, the message of hope and the message of grace have also now reached the masses through TV. All of these messages, My son, were – they have been – My messages designed to bring into the kingdom warriors who will stand their ground. That is the reason for each.

"But each one has been carefully prepared to introduce the message of My thirteen new God Incarnate apostles.

"However, the time is now so short, your message on The Second Death is a must for the 'now generation.' Those who must have it now must know the consequences of their now decisions.

"The enemy has gained inroads into the world at a rapid rate through the electronic communication and conversation devices. And he has been very active there from the beginning because every radio, radar, television and now most telephone transmissions, travel through his territory since he is the prince of the power of the air.<sup>2</sup>

"And know that he knows of all and any intrusion into his territory. He has welcomed with open arms each of these intrusions of his territory as nothing more than an opportunity to expand his empire, which he has done.

"While many Spirit filled believers have rejoiced over the intrusion of the Gospel into television, Satan likewise has also rejoiced at the now greatest opportunity ever to spew his evil through the electronic devices and the print media.

"So this writing on The Second Death is very timely and you are the one I have designated to do this writing assignment.

"Take your time and do this writing for Me, which is a reinforcement of My previous writing instructions.

"The time has come for My complete truth about eternity to be plainly published for all to see. My servant MKB has fully published My truth about hell. Your writing must supplement that to include other attractions of the enemy which amount to sugar coated cyanide pills. They look good, taste good and make one "feel good" with an artificial 'high' that leads to certain eternal death in a fire where their worm does not die and the flame of fire is never quenched.

“Pull no punches in this one, My son. Be as plain spoken about the enemy’s work as you have been about the good news of My work and that will be sufficient.” <end of the Lord’s introduction>

Now you know why I write. No one has the ability to write as I write since I am really no more than the Lord’s recording secretary. As He speaks, I record His words in my journal, then transcribe and print them for future use as He dictates. That is why what I write will become a sequel to the bible.

At first glance, the second death and the second birth (rebirth) are similar in principle – ridiculous in the natural but essential in the spiritual.

The term “the second death” is found four times in the Revelation of the resurrected Lord Jesus as recorded by John, the apostle:

(1) “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death.”<sup>3</sup>

(2) “Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.”<sup>4</sup>

(3) “But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murders, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”<sup>5</sup>

(4) “The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where the

<sup>3</sup>Revelation 2:4. “He who overcomes” is a faithful follower of the Lord Jesus who has overcome the overcomer, the devil, and his evil, tempting, lustful, deceitful lies, and will therefore avoid the second death.

<sup>4</sup>Revelation 20:6. “The first resurrection” is the rapture of the saints, at the beginning of the Tribulation, who will return with Christ seven years later to rule and reign with Him during the Millennium.

<sup>5</sup>Revelation 21:8. This scripture defines “the second death” as the lake which burns with fire and brimstone and names eight classifications of sinners who will spend eternity there.

beast and the false prophet are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever. Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. And there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works. Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.”<sup>6</sup>

During His visible ministry, Jesus said some strikingly unusual, and seemingly, some radical things to do if your hand or your foot or your eye causes you to sin. Please believe this teacher. Jesus spoke truth, the words of which were given to Him by God, the Father, within Him.

In final analysis, these seemingly radical, extreme ways to eradicate sin from your life are ways to avoid the lake of fire and brimstone at whatever the

<sup>6</sup>Revelation 20:10-15. This scripture describes The Great White Throne Judgment which will occur after the millennial reign of Christ and His angels, when Satan will be released for a little while. Then follows the great battle of Gog and Magog in the form of a massive army from the north (presumably Russia and her allies) marching against tiny Israel and Jerusalem. Fire will come down from heaven and devour the massive army of Gog and Magog after which Satan, Death and Hades will be cast into the lake of fire, which is the second death.

At the Great White Throne Judgment, “the books” and the “Book of Life” are opened. In the record rooms of the third heaven, there is a book (“the books”) for each one born on the earth (unbelievers in this case) wherein the events of each life are recorded. The Book of Life is a singular book wherein is written the names of all faithful believers. One whose name is not written in The Book of Life is judged by entries in his personal book kept by angels in one of the many record rooms in the third heaven. Everyone whose name is not found in The Book of Life is cast into the lake of fire for eternity, which is the second death.

All unbelievers who have lived on the earth, regardless of when and how they died will be resurrected to face this eternal judgment and each one will be cast into the lake of fire which is the second death.

cost. In each of these three examples, Jesus gives the reason to avoid sin at all costs as the only way to avoid the lake of fire described in very graphic, but in very real terms. Remember, the wages of sin is death.

Listen as Jesus speaks to you:

(1) “But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched – where

“Their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.

(2) “And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched – where

“Their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.”

(3) “And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire – where

“Their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.”<sup>7</sup>

Please notice that the statement, “Their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched,” is set apart from the context of the writing in a separate isolated paragraph three distinct times. Mark did that to emphasize the danger of disobedience and the reality of an eternal hell where the flame of fire is never quenched.

But notice something else: “Where their worm does not die” is also descriptive of the reality of an eternal hell. “Their worm” makes it personal for everyone cast into the lake of fire. Your five senses are increased in hell where there are worms that continually eat the bodies or the bones of those destined to eternal punishment. Those “worms” are like maggots on the earth that feed on dead bodies or on decaying matter, except in hell those worms thrive in the presence of fire. In hell you can forever feel those worms or those fire maggots eating on and in your bones about which you can do nothing but endure the torment.

Jesus is saying that the loss of a hand or a foot or an eye to avoid sin, is a small price to pay to avoid the second death in fire and torment in hell eternally. Sin is deliberate disobedience. Don’t do it! The price is too high. Righteousness is deliberate obedience and the rewards are without limit.

Unbelievers who are without a limb or have any other physical deficiency while alive on the earth will remain in that condition forever in hell.

Contrast that with a faithful servant of the Lord, who, at death, resurrection or rapture, will have his body restored by the perfection of the Godhead bodily that will enter him on the way up. Yes, it’s true. As we are taken up to the third heaven, the fullness of the Godhead bodily will enter us and conform us to the perfection of the likeness of the body of Jesus after His resurrection. Our body will then be whole, youthful, vigorous, attractive and perfect in every way eternally.<sup>8</sup>

Saints of God, we are at war. It’s Satan against God. The stakes are high. Satan is God’s enemy. He comes to steal, kill and destroy man with sugar coated cyanide pills that look good, taste good and may make you feel good temporarily, but which lead to the second death in fire and brimstone. God’s word gives the only antidote for Satan’s cyanide pills.

If you choose the pleasures of sin for a season and your life is snuffed out unexpectedly while enjoying “your pleasures,” the consequences of such conduct have already been determined: the second death.

God sends no one to hell. Man by his own volition makes that determination himself as a free moral agent. Everyone who follows Satan into the eternal lake of fire will have multiple opportunities to follow our Lord and escape hell.

God will give each one multiple opportunities to follow the Lord Jesus until God’s conscience has been satisfied. Once that occurs and God makes sure that one has made an irrevocable decision, judgment is set. God has spoken. The results are eternal.

In final analysis, it gets down to whether or not you want to suffer the consequences of your own sins or you want Jesus to do that for you.

The term “outer darkness” is mentioned three times in the bible. All three are recorded by Matthew and all three statements concerning outer darkness are words spoken by Jesus. Listen carefully to those three examples of reality from the mouth of Jesus, spoken on three separate occasions, concerning outer darkness, which is another part of hell:

(1) “And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”<sup>9</sup>

Here, Jesus reveals an unusual but an explicit truth in those three sentences. Sons of the kingdom will be cast into outer darkness. “Sons of the kingdom” are servants of God who served Him faithfully but turned back after God called them. They loved the pleasures of the world and turned back to wallowing in the mire of sin and were cast into outer darkness!

“Cast” means to be thrown, projected or forcefully ejected or thrust by the power of God into an outer, isolated part of hell where there is no light except the light of flame in a sea of fire. Here is what the apostle Peter proclaimed on the same subject:

“For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: ‘A dog returns to his own vomit,’ and, ‘a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire.’”<sup>10</sup>

What Jesus did for us on the cross is not to be taken lightly. That is not something to be tried “to see if we like it,” for outer darkness is the most terrible of the punishments of hell. The acceptance of what Jesus did on the cross for us is the most highly prized and the most highly priced gift mankind has access to. It is best received as “all or nothing at all” is the plain teaching of scripture because we can’t serve two masters. But when you consider the only alternative, the choice is a no brainer.

If you believe you can serve two masters by keeping one foot in the world and the other in the kingdom, you will end up loving one and hating the other. And by trying to serve both, since Satan’s appeal is to lust and pride through the senses, he will win because the pleasures of sin for a season are more immediate but fatal.

The writer of Hebrews proclaims the same message with these words:

“For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they fall away, to renew them again to repentance, since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to an open shame. For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, receives blessings from God; but if it bears thorns and briers, it is rejected and near to being cursed, whose end is to be burned.”<sup>11</sup>

Notice, the phrase, “whose end is to be burned,” carries the same connotation as one’s condition in outer darkness. But remember, if we sin, we have an advocate with the Father who awaits with open arms your confession and repentance, for the apostle John wrote:

“If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”<sup>12</sup>

This is not to be used as an excuse to sin again, but an opportunity to become cleansed for a new beginning.

Saints of God, we are less than ten years from the rapture of the church. This means that we have very little time left. Total consecration to our Lord should be a prime consideration which is a win/win situation. The dividends are without limit. Now is the time to make your total commitment to our Lord.

(2) “But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there who did not have on a wedding garment. So he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?’ And he was speechless. Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”<sup>13</sup>

This second parable is about a king who sent out his servants with invitations to his son’s wedding. If you read the complete parable in Matthew 22:1-14, those who were first invited were indifferent and unwilling to consider the king’s invitation.

The next group to receive an invitation made light of it, abused and killed some of the king’s servants. When the king heard about this, he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

The king then sent his servants out into the highways and invited those who were both good and bad until the wedding hall was filled. Those who accepted the invitation came dressed for the occasion. The man who had no wedding garment was a party crasher who had refused the king’s invitation. Outer darkness was his destination.

The third group from the highways and the byways of life represent God’s invitation to “whomsoever will, let him come to the fountain of life and drink freely.” Hallelujah!

Next, in our third outer darkness illustration or parable, we have a servant who was afraid to use his one God given talent. When this was discovered, his lord commanded that his one talent be taken from him and given to a servant who had used five talents wisely.

Listen to what his lord said concerning his unprofitable servant:

(3) “For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”<sup>14</sup>

The complete parable of the talents in this third illustration is found in Matthew 25:14-30. In verses 24 and 25 we find that the one talent servant was fearful and lied about his lord which means he served his lord with his lips – with his mind – but his heart was far from him.<sup>15</sup> That is why the one talent “servant” was cast into outer darkness. (See Matthew 6:24; Luke 16:23)

Hear these words of Jesus from Matthew chapter 7:

21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven.

22 “Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name; cast out demons in Your name and done many wonders in Your name?’

23 “And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.’”

Those who cast out demons and did many wonders (mighty works KJV) served God with their mind to call attention to themselves which is pride. Make no mistake, hell is their destination. Self must be denied to serve God. Self must be indulged (pride) to serve Satan. Hidden selfish pride is a mask that leads to hell. Only as one serves God with all his heart, devoid of pride, will God (not self) get the glory, for it is with the heart one believes unto righteousness. You cannot steal God’s righteousness.

A back-door snare of the enemy who has a fruitful and recognized ministry in a denominational church. He has become a universalist. A universalist is one who believes that since God is a good God, who is a God of love, could not send someone to hell eternally because eventually “enough is enough” so that anyone – everyone – consigned to hell will ultimately have paid the price for his transgressions and therefore will be released into heaven.

That is faulty reasoning for two reasons.

First, it is contrary to scripture and particularly to the words of Jesus quoted in this letter.

Second, God sends no one to hell. Anyone – everyone – consigned to hell makes that decision himself. God has said to me that everyone who goes to hell will have multiple opportunities to follow our Lord and spend eternity in heaven with Him and with the Saints of all ages.

One reason for those multiple opportunities to accept Jesus as Lord is because Jehovah God, Himself, fell prey to the enemy’s cunning deceit. God was the first prodigal. He was deceived by a fallen Lucifer, so He knows of his cunning lies and deceit because “He has been there.” This is why everyone will have multiple opportunities to avoid the snares of the enemy and to accept Jesus as Lord to escape the torment of an eternal hell.

But when God’s conscience is satisfied that one has made the irrevocable decision to follow the enemy’s evil deceptive ways, judgment is set and hell is his eternal destination, because of his own decision to follow the enemy.

If you are a universalist, repent now and accept the truth of God while there is still time. If one may compromise one of God’s principles, he may be inclined to compromise another. Don’t take that risk!

In 1976, the Lord appeared to Mary Kathryn Baxter and told her that she was chosen for a special assignment. He said that He would take her soul (and spirit) out of her body and take her into hell for thirty nights and into heaven for ten nights. These visits resulted in three books, one of which is, “A Divine Revelation of Hell.”<sup>16</sup>

The following quotations from this remarkable book will make more graphically vivid the reality of the second death and of hell. Listen carefully to these five selected excerpts from, “A Devine Revelation of Hell,” each of which was selected from a different part of hell that Mary Kathryn visited with Jesus:

“The skeleton form of a woman with a dirty-grey mist inside was talking to Jesus. In shock, I listened to her. Decayed flesh hung by shreds from her bones, and, as it burned, it fell off into the bottom of the pit.<sup>17</sup> Where her eyes had once been were now only empty sockets. She had no hair.

“The fire started at her feet in small flames and grew as it climbed up and over her body. The woman seemed to be constantly burning, even when the flames were only embers. From deep down inside her came cries and groaning of despair, ‘Lord, Lord, I want out of here.’

“She kept reaching out to Jesus. I looked at Jesus, and there was great sorrow on His face. Jesus said to me, ‘My child, you are here with Me to let the world know that sin results in death, that hell is real.’

“I looked at the woman again, and worms were crawling out of the bones of her skeleton. They were not harmed by the fire. Jesus said, ‘She knows and feels those worms inside.’”

(2) From “The Tunnel of Fear.”

“Jesus said, ‘We are now about to enter a tunnel which will take us into the belly of hell. Hell is shaped like a human body lying in the center of the earth. The body is lying on her back, with both arms and both legs stretched out. As I have a body of believers, so hell has a body of sin and death. As the Christ body is built up daily, so the hell body is also built up daily.’”

(3) From “The Horrors of Hell.”

“An evil sound began to rise from the left of us. I looked, and Satan was standing with his back to us, and he was all aflame. But he was not being burned; rather, it was he who caused the fire. Now he stood engulfed in the flames, enjoying the cries of those poor, lost souls. As Satan moved his arms, great balls of fire

<sup>17</sup>There are many of these pits in the left leg of hell. They are four feet across and three feet deep, shaped like a bowl, the sides of which are embedded with brimstone that glow red hot like coals of fire. shot from him.<sup>18</sup>

“Heartbreaking screams and great cries of pain came from the cells. The souls inside were being burned alive by this hotter than hot lake of fire, and yet they could not die. The demons, too, joined in the laughter as Satan went from cell to cell, tormenting the lost.

“Jesus said, ‘Satan feeds on evil. He glories in pain and suffering and gains power from it.’”

(4) From “The Heart of Hell.”

On one occasion, Jesus left Mary in hell by herself to experience the ravages of eternal, excruciating torture and torment. On that occasion, here is part of a conversation Mary had with a woman in one of the cells: “Sometimes,” the woman continued, “we are brought before Satan and he tortures us for his pleasure. Satan feeds on our pain and grows strong on our cries of despair and sorrow. Our sins are always before us. We know we are ungodly. We know also that we once knew the Lord Jesus but refused Him and turned away from God. We did as we pleased. Before I came here I was a prostitute. I took men and women for their money and called what we did ‘love.’ I destroyed many homes. Many lesbians, homosexuals and adulterers are in these cells.”

(5) From “The Right Arm of Hell.”

“As I looked closer, I saw many souls, each chained to another. The weight of the chains dragged them under the surface of the lake of fire. The souls in hell were in the fire of hell. I saw also that they were in the form of skeletons with misty gray souls.

“What is this?” I asked the Lord.

“These are the souls of the unbelievers and the ungodly. These were lovers of their own flesh more than lovers of God. They were men loving men, women loving women, who would not repent and be saved from their sins. They enjoyed their life of sin and spurned My salvation.”

A “sign” of the twenty-first century

On June 26, 2013, the US Supreme Court issued a ruling that struck down the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) signed into law by President Bill Clinton on

<sup>18</sup>This is confirmation of Ezekiel’s description of Satan in Ezekiel 28:14 where it states that Satan “walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones,” which means that he was (is) impervious to fire.

September 21, 1996.

The US Supreme Court June 26, 2013 ruling declared that henceforth the Court would recognize the definition of marriage as confirmed by each state.<sup>19</sup> This sounds like the states are in the driver’s seat, but think again.

Recently in an eastern state, a Methodist facility lost part of its IRS 501 (c) (3) tax free advantage because permission was refused a lesbian couple to confirm their wedding vows in the Methodist facility.

These issues will hereafter be decided by the court in the 35 states where same sex marriage is not recognized. Expect serious court challenges in each of these states, each of which will be tied to the US Supreme Court June 26, 2013 ruling. Also expect 501 (c) (3) tax exemptions, monitored by the IRS, to be challenged, as in the Methodist facility, for example.<sup>20</sup>

This means that sodomy is now legal in 14 states and the last shoe has not dropped.

God’s answer to the “sign”

The law of Moses forbids the adulteration of the sexuality of man or of woman, in a number of specific areas, to include sodomy (See Exodus 20:14, Leviticus 8:6-30). The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah is evidence of God’s violent disapproval of the adulteration of man’s sexuality (See Genesis 18:16-19:25).

The flood survived only by Noah and his family was caused by the adulteration of man’s sexuality when sons of God (angels or heavenly beings<sup>21</sup>) cohabited with the daughters of men. Those unions produced offspring so wicked that every intent of the thought of their heart was only evil continually which brought on God’s second destruction of the world.

This same kind of sexual perversion occurred

<sup>19</sup>As of the date of this writing, 35 states do not allow same sex marriage, 14 states recognize same sex marriage and New Mexico has no law on marriage. As a result of this Supreme Court ruling, marriage may now be defined in the same sex states as the union between two US citizens; in the states where same sex marriage is not permitted, as the union between a man and a woman.

<sup>20</sup>A number of years ago, I knew that God was calling me into a full time ministry, and was preparing to obtain a 501 (c) (3) tax exempt status for my ministry. The Lord then spoke to me and said, “Do not get a 501 (c) (3). The time will come when the IRS will exercise control over ministries through the 501 (c) (3) tax exemption. I will be your 501 (c) (3) and I can handle the tax problem.

on Earth One (as the result of a fallen Lucifer – Satan) prior to its complete destruction about which I have written previously.

Adam and Eve were originally made in the image and likeness of God (God Incarnate) as God’s family and wife, one purpose of which was procreation.

From the beginning, Satan has targeted marriage and the home, as ordained by God, because the marriage of one man to one woman is God’s basic societal unit in the kingdom. Man is to keep himself sexually pure as God ordained because God wants a pure body in whom to dwell, which was His purpose in making man. Man is instructed to keep himself pure sexually according to God’s standard for the sake of God first, and second, for the sake of man.

In the first chapter of Romans, Paul wrote that the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men to include both men and women homosexuals (See Romans 1:18-27).

The US Supreme Court ruling on June 26, 2013, stepped over into the world ruled by Satan and called evil good and good evil. Neither US civil law nor Islamic Sharia (Shaiah) law negates kingdom law. This means that we should love the homosexual but recognize that it is the enemy, himself, who has brought this about.

It is my understanding that most, if not all homosexuals (men and women), believe their homosexuality is a biological or a genetic condition they were given at birth, and therefore, homosexuality for them is the natural or the normal way God made them. This is powerful testimony of the supernatural cunning of the enemy.

I understand this because my firstborn son, Jim, Jr., (James L.) died in Las Vegas, Nevada, the morning of July 26, 2013, as a homosexual drug addict. He was 68 years, three months and 28 days old. I did not know of his homosexuality until he was almost 60 years of age. After I discovered his homosexuality, he told me that he had had homosexual desires as far back as he could remember as a small child.

Once I discovered his homosexuality, I began to pray for his salvation – for his complete restoration – and soon thereafter, the Lord spoke to me and said that my son would be restored. For that reason, I released him to the Lord without concern until Bettye, my daughter, told me of Jim’s death in a phone conversation the morning of July 26, 2013.

Took Dale to Plano Baylor Hospital at 4:30 PM yesterday, Thursday 7/25/13. I had a dream last night when someone – I believe it was a woman – asked me to give the eulogy at a funeral that I was unsure of doing. Then in a phone call to Bettye this morning (about mid-morning), she told me that Jim, Jr. died earlier this morning, Friday, July 26, 2013, from HIV complications together with problems that developed because of his drug use so that his system couldn’t handle the load and he expired. His family will have his body cremated and will have a memorial service for him, probably in a week or two, we presume in California.

From the Lord later the afternoon of 7/26/13

“My son I told you that I would restore him. Of that you may be assured because I speak truth. So many of My precious prodigals<sup>23</sup> are in need of what I am preparing you to give them. So have patience with Me, My son. I am at work on the whole picture into which to fit your future ministries.

“And that, My son, is a gargantuan undertaking, but one that I can handle.

“He is in My hands.

“Fret not over him – I have him.

“You, My son, are here to do for Me many things no one else can do.

“We are right on course – on target for your (My/Our) immediate future and things are looking good. I have already seen the transitional end of one part of your life with another soon to begin.

“Blessings to you, My son. I am with you in all of this that is going as planned.”

<sup>23</sup>God has said to me that a prodigal is one who has been deceived by the enemy and that Eve was the first prodigal on Earth Two. God has also said to me that many of those prodigals would have exceeded His most noble ones had they not been deceived, to include homosexuals. But Jehovah God, Himself, was the first prodigal because He was the first one to be deceived by a fallen Lucifer. God calls them His precious prodigals because He was deceived by a fallen Lucifer and has therefore “walked in their shoes.” God has said that I will have a ministry to His precious prodigals to include homosexuals, to completely restore them, many of whom are trapped in a body they do not understand.

His word continues at 11:39 PM on 7/26/13

“Yes, My son, the ‘thoughts’ you have had today concerning the death of your eldest son, Jim, Jr., are correct.

“Remember, Solomon dedicated the new Temple with the largest animal sacrifice ever offered, after which I appeared to him and asked what he would like for Me to do for him. Solomon’s request was for Me to give him the wisdom to govern My people over whom he was made king, and I granted his request.

“However, in Solomon’s old age, he strayed from Me into the idolatry of his heathen wives to flagrantly disobey Me. But through all of that, because of his father David, Solomon was blessed by Me in the beginning only to turn from Me in violent disobedience in his old age.

“In like manner, My son, your eldest son blessed many people in his younger years but turned from Me in idolatry (like Solomon) in his older years.

“But now hear this My anointed son: as I blessed Solomon because of his father, so have I blessed your son as I received him into My fold (not the fold of the enemy) earlier this morning because of your faithfulness to Me.

“My son, the corollary is exact. As Solomon was finally blessed because of David, his father, your eldest son has been blessed because of you.

“Remember, I said We (you and I) are of one heart and of one spirit and those words I have said to you this night have already come to pass. Your son is cradled in My arms of love because of your faithfulness.

“I have said similar words to you before, but these confirming prophetic words to you tonight will put closure on this, the death of your firstborn.

“As you have desired about Jim in the past has come to pass. From what I have said to you about Jim previously, you thought you would minister to him prior to his death in order to restore him as I promised you.

“But instead, your righteousness did in fact minister to him, but not as you surmised. Your righteousness, My son, ministered to your son in the spirit as he came home to Me.

“That’s how powerful is a life totally consecrated to Me. Through such a life I may minister to another unknowingly because of My love for those who are completely devoted to Me throughout their entire life. Such a life reaches into areas that only I can see because I exist in eternity in order to bless those who live in and who exist in time.

“Because of your faithfulness and complete trustworthiness, you have and you will bless many, soon to be extended into multitudes.

“So this is something else you are free to teach. For one to be consecrated to Me so as to content, satisfy and fulfill Me, My son, is a powerful tool in the kingdom.

“These words are true as I have given them to you this night.

“As the iniquity of the father is visited upon the children to the third and fourth generation,<sup>24</sup> so is the righteousness of the father visited on the children of his issue.

“That’s the power of a Spirit driven and a Spirit filled life.

“Nothing, My son, is wasted in the kingdom.

“Remember, when I fed two multitudes with two sack lunches? Afterward I had My disciples to gather up the fragments so that nothing would be wasted. You have just witnessed an example of the fact that nothing I am involved in is wasted – even the fragments.<sup>25</sup>

“My son, this is a powerful principle to teach. It portrays My love for all those who love Me and remain faithful until death or rapture.

“My son, no faithful servant of Mine goes without ancillary blessings and benefits that may not be revealed until that one’s earthly cloak is removed as I call him home to Me. This physical earthly place is only a temporary visitation in preparation to come home to Me.” <end of prophetic word>

As you may imagine, I have read those prophetic words through tears a number of times. We serve a great God.

This word the Lord gave me on the death and the salvation of my eldest son has two similar admonitions to me (in the last two above red enclosures) concerning his salvation. Those admonitions are that Jim’s salvation, because of my faith walk with God, is a powerful principle to teach, because it portrays God's love for all those who love Him and remain faithful until death or Rapture. And that is my admonition to you.

<sup>25</sup>A fragment is something that no one wants. My firstborn son was a fragment that no one wanted.

Beginning today, decide to live your life before God and man, faithful to Him, regardless of what lies ahead.

Don't put that decision off. Decide today to "sell out" to God 100% every day of your life hereafter, knowing full well that your life of faith may bring forth ancillary blessings of untold value.

If He will do it for me, He will do it for you.

You can't out-give God.

But here is another side to the life of my eldest son,

Jim:

In the fall of 1963 he enrolled in Rice University.

Not very long thereafter, he met another young man, also a Rice student, whom I shall call "Joe" for the purpose of confidentiality. In an effort to proselytize Joe into our legalistic denomination,<sup>26</sup> Jim was asked, "Have you been baptized with the Holy Spirit?" Not long after that, Joe laid hands on Jim and prayed for him to be baptized with the Holy Spirit as scripture reveals. As I recall this probably occurred in late 1964 or early in 1965.

Shortly thereafter, Jim came home for the weekend and said to me, "Dad, we have missed something," without saying what we had missed. But the thing I noticed about him was that he was changed. He seemed to be completely at peace and now when he prayed, it sounded like he knew who he was talking to while I did not.

I knew a lot about God, because I was a bible teacher and spent many hours in preparation to teach. But knowing God and knowing about God are two very different things.

Jim's conduct changed. One weekend when he came home from Rice, that Saturday morning, he and two other college students, whom he had known from his Bryan Adams High School days, sat quietly in our living room with open bibles. One of them would speak up and say, "Look what I found," then proceed to read aloud the scripture from his bible. That went on for about two hours – not what one might call normal or usual conduct for three young men in college.

After I observed Jim's changed countenance and demeanor for about six months, I decided that whatever he had was something I did not have but that I wanted. The long Thanksgiving weekend of 1965, Jim and one of his friends enrolled at Rice, came home to spend the weekend with us.

Saturday night, before they were to return to Rice

<sup>26</sup>A teaching in the legalistic denomination we were in at that time was, "Everyone is going to hell but us and I am not sure about all of us." This may seem strange to you, but it is the truth. If seriously believed, that is enough to make one emotionally unstable.

the following Sunday, I asked Jim to pray for me to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit – and it had nothing to do with speaking in tongues, as scripture confirms,<sup>27</sup> because that became totally repulsive to me through a lot of legalistic teaching. I had no desire, whatsoever, to speak in tongues. But what I did have the desire for was the change in the demeanor and countenance that I had seen in my son.

The three of us then drove over to the nearby Lakeside Baptist Church prayer chapel (that Jim had found) that was open twenty-fours daily for prayer. The three of us went to the front pew and got down on our knees. Jim opened a bible and turned to the Spiritual gifts listed in 1 Corinthians 12:8-10. He then asked me to read over those gifts and pick one for which we would pray that God would give me. I saw nothing listed there that interested me except the gift of wisdom – not "the word of wisdom" as scripture states, but the gift of wisdom itself. And that is what I picked out. Those two young college students on each side of me then laid their hands on my shoulders, bound the enemy and proceeded to pray for God to baptize me with the Holy Spirit and to give me the gift of wisdom, after which we drove back home.

My prayer was with zero faith – mathematical zero – not plus or minus – just zero. But I knew what I had seen was real, and that was what I wanted. That's all.

Nothing happened in that prayer session that I could detect. I felt nothing and nothing changed until the following Monday morning. At 7:45 AM that morning, as I was getting dressed for work, the word WISDOM suddenly appeared in bright, white light as though it was written – actually printed – in large capital letters on the bedroom wall about six or eight feet in front of me. Then it disappeared as suddenly as it appeared. This drew my attention to our prayer two nights before. The Lord then spoke to me in that still, small voice that Elijah heard in the cave that day when he was hiding from Jezebel. I was instructed to pray with the pastor of our church about a problem with which the Elders were confronted (I was an Elder).

All of this was contrary to everything we believed and taught in our church. The standard church doctrine was that once the cannon of scripture was confirmed, the ministry, miracles, and work of the Holy Spirit ceased and we were to read, obey and study the bible as our only guide.

The vision in bright, white light and hearing the Lord's voice of instruction totally contradicted everything I had believed and taught. In spite of that, there was no emotion whatsoever, to the reaction of my spiritual experience – until sometime later.

That prayer changed my life forever.

Yes, I did pray with our pastor about the problem, and yes, we did see a miracle occur as the result.

the importance of this letter.”

Wednesday, October 9, 2013.

“Yes, most, if not all homosexuals believe their homosexuality is the biological and the genetic way they were born, since many of them (if not all) have had homosexual desires as far back as they can remember.

“In fact, My precious son, there are homosexuals who are trapped in a body they do not understand because their sexual desires are toward members of their own sex, or men for men and women for women.”

“This is the result of the work of the enemy and is powerful testimony to his evil, deceitful, but nevertheless, supernatural power.”

“Fallen Lucifer who became Satan, has had the disruption of marriage and the home in his sights from the beginning.

“God’s societal unit in His kingdom is a God Incarnate man joined in marriage to a God Incarnate woman, as His body and wife on the earth, to first fulfill Himself, while that will simultaneously fulfill mankind.

“Satan’s divisive dealing with mankind on Earth One was to confound man’s sexuality in order to disrupt God’s plan of procreation to fulfill both God and man simultaneously.

“This assault on man’s sexuality has been Satan’s target from the beginning to disrupt and to destroy marriage and the home as God designed it.

“We must, therefore, have mercy and compassion for the homosexual, but not for the act of homosexuality.

“All twelve God Incarnate apostles will have the supernatural power and authority to restore EVERY HOMOSEXUAL – both man and woman – whose desire is to be delivered.

“You, My son, will have My special calling in this area. All twelve of you will have this authority of supernatural restoration, but you will have knowledge and calling in this area beyond the other eleven because of your firstborn son.”

A father is supposed to lead – to be the example for his son, but I had failed completely in the area of spiritual maturity because of the legalistic doctrine of the church we were members of. My twenty year-old son had led his forty-five year-old father into the fullness of the Gospel for which I will be forever grateful. In our church, the Holy Spirit, at best, was only a retired Author – nothing more. That accounted for the arid, dry atmosphere and conduct of all of us in that denomination in 1965.

After I discovered that my son Jim was a homosexual drug addict (about ten years ago), and was told by the Lord that he would be restored, my thought was that I would be able to “return the favor,” in a manner of speaking, by ministering to him after being released into my God Incarnate ministry. But God had a better plan for which I am grateful.

I did have a part in my eldest son’s restoration, but in way that I never thought possible.

So those of you who have a wayward son or daughter, family member or friend, I recommend the same restoration principle I have been shown: serve God faithfully, pray for that loved one and never give up.

I close this letter with two additional prophetic words God gave me after the death of my eldest son, on the dates as listed:

Sunday, September 29, 2013.

“Yes, My son, I want you to treat homosexuality precisely as I treat it. The fact that society in general now calls evil good and good evil does not justify that which I have said is wrong.

“Look at My word. Quote My word on homosexuality, for that is My measure of right and wrong. Be as specific with evil as you have been with good and My generosity.”

“That is your mandate for Me, My son.” You must be as specific and as graphic with this letter as I have been in My word which will judge EVERYONE without exception.

“You may include the word I gave you on your son’s death if you like, but I leave that to you. The main teaching in that word is like David; your private life lived for Me was the salvation of your firstborn.

“Solomon was saved because I honored his father David.

“The main thing you might gain by publishing that word is to prompt a similar life among those who have wayward children.

“But yes – again – publish what My word says about homosexuality, for that will be My measure of EVERYONE at whichever judgment they face.

“This should be sufficient prompting from Me on
