Boldly declaring the new things of Isaiah 42:9 and the greater works of John 14:12 in this Rapture generation

FIRST CENTURY FOUNDATIONS MODIFIED BY TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY REVELATION

“This writing might also be entitled, ‘A Right-Now Word From God,’ since rhema words from the mouth of God are the source of this writing, and since I have been instructed by God to write this letter.

“There are almost endless formal writings on doctrinal or theological issues published by the Orthodox, the Catholic and the Protestant churches. Many of those documents are derived from official edicts of a church body for their members, some details of which may be implications from scripture, or in some cases, from the Apocrypha, instead of from an ‘It is written’ in the bible,

“And yes, there are implications from scripture included in this writing. But those implications or deductions are based on rhema words from the mouth of God.

“To be more explicit about the source of this writing, God has made available in the remaining years of this Rapture generation, the ability to hear His voice – His rhema words daily – 24/7. This has NEVER been done before. Thirteen new apostles soon to emerge at twelve select points of the world, have been trained to hear God's voice daily. One of those apostles has heard, written in his journal, transcribed, printed and filed in three-ring note books, more than three times the number of words in the King James Version of the bible. That's more than 2,364,840 rhema words. Additionally, God has directed that this writing be sourced from those words and from the bible.

“To clarify this issue more carefully, the Old Testament in the King James version of the bible I use as a Protestant, differs from the Catholic bible, while I understand the New Testaments may be the same in both bibles.

“There are what is considered to be valid reasons by both Catholics and Protestants for these two different bibles. There are other differences as well, such as the eternal virginity of Mary, the definition of the word ‘saint’ and the authority of one so designated.

These things, and others as well, I will leave you to research for yourself. However, when God speaks today, those rhema words are truth regardless of to whom they are spoken. That is the blessing of learning to hear His rhema words daily. Hearing God's voice is a great equalizer and stabilizer.

“Jesus was born to a young Jewish virgin. Because the Spirit, instead of the sperm of man, fertilized the egg in Mary's womb, Jesus was born without the Adamic or the Satanic sin curse and sin nature, that originated with the transgressions of Eve and Adam in Eden.

“By looking at both the Old and the New Testaments, there is no indication that both Mary and her betrothed were different from any other young unmarried Jewish couple. Since the bible tells us nothing about the parents of Mary, we must conclude, therefore, that she was born under the Satanic sin curse and sin nature, and from an objective point of view, Jesus was only 50% freed of the contamination of sin and death. The other 50% was solved by God training Jesus with the Six Measure Standard, the Sixth Standard of which is a vow of celibacy, totally unencumbered – freed of all earthly ties. Jesus, therefore, was the first celibate to serve God in the New kingdom with a new King.

“When Jesus was about thirty years of age, John the Baptist baptized Him in water, after which the Spirit in the visible form of a dove, alighted and remained on Him. The other two invisible Persons of the Godhead – God and the Word – simultaneously entered His physical body when He became God Incarnate. This is confirmed by the apostle Paul's writing in Colossians 2:9:

‘For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.’

“This means Jesus became God Incarnate after John's baptism in water, and was temporarily indwelt with the fullness of the Godhead bodily: God, the Word and the Spirit. An explanation of the word ‘temporarily’ follows in this letter.

“In all of His ministry activities thereafter, God the Father, guided Jesus to include choosing His twelve disciples and even the words that He spoke. See Jim Ash letter No. 93 at website:www.jimash3.com for a more extensive treatment of this subject.

“Since Adam and Eve were formed ‘in Our image and in Our likeness,’ they both originally were God Incarnate. Because Jesus was also God Incarnate, who did not fail as did both Eve and Adam, Paul called Jesus ‘the last Adam.’ This clearly defines what Eve and Adam gave up through their transgressions.

“The failure of Eve and Adam in Eden must be addressed. Eve, who first transgressed God’s law in Eden, could not have eaten something with her mouth that contaminated or defiled her spiritually, because Jesus said in Matthew 15:11:

‘ Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, that defiles a man.’

“This is proof that neither Eve nor Adam could have eaten something with their mouth that defied them spiritually.

“The answer to what Eve ate and gave to her husband Adam to eat, comes from Jesus after He had fasted forty days, when Satan tempted Him to turn stones into bread for something to eat. As recorded in Matthew 4:4, Jesus replied:

“It is written, ‘man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word (rhema) that proceeds from the mouth of God.”

“Here Jesus clearly states that man feeds or sustains himself physically by eating with his mouth, but man feeds or sustains himself spiritually by hearing rhema words from the mouth of God. However, that rule works in the world ruled by Satan as well as it works in the kingdom of God. Eve believed in her heart the enticing, evil, lustful words of Satan, confessed them as reality to Adam when she told him, who heeded the voice of his wife, instead of the voice of God. With the heart, therefore, one believes unto righteousness as well as unto unrighteousness. Hence, life and death are in the power of the tongue.

“This proves the validity of God’s warning Adam he would die on the day he ate of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. There were two trees in Eden: the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. The tree of life is rooted in self denied; the tree of the knowledge of good and evil is rooted in the indulgence of self. In essence, there in the first three chapters of Genesis, Moses, inspired by the Holy Spirit, sets before us the redemption of man some 1400 years before the Messiah was born.

“The eternal virginity of Mary, the mother of Jesus, is set forth as a tenet or dogma of the Catholic Church. In opposition to this understanding are twelve New Testament verses of scripture footnoted at the end of this sentence, which specifically reference a number of times the mother of Jesus, His four brothers and His sisters.¹ As I understand it, the supposed basis for this belief is that the brothers and sisters of Jesus listed in scripture are not Mary’s children, but the children of Mary’s second husband after the death of Joseph.

“In John’s Gospel, chapter one, he writes:

In the beginning was the Word, and Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 “He was in the beginning with God.

3 “All things were made through Him and without Him nothing was made that was made.

14 “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.”

“Two questions arise from these four verses of scripture:

(1) “What ‘beginning is referred to in verse one, and,

(2) “When did the Word become flesh (Jesus) to dwell among us.

“The ‘beginning’ referred to could not be the beginning of the Earth One world, because that ‘world’ existed perfectly, ruled over by a perfect Lucifer and in which everyone was God Incarnate for several thousand years of ‘unmeasured time,’ before fallen Lucifer revolted against God; hence there was no need for a Savior in that ‘beginning’ until fallen Lucifer’s failure, which ‘triggered’ God’s new beginning in Genesis chapters one and two.

“Therefore, the ‘beginning’ referred to is the ¹Matt. 12:46, 47; Mark 3:31, 32; Luke 8:19, 20; John 2:12; 7:3; 7:5; 7:10; Acts 1:14; 1 Cor. 9:5.

beginning described in Genesis chapters one and two. There was a 'gap' of several thousand years of 'unmeasured time' between the failure of the Earth One world and the Genesis chapters one and two beginning. That 'gap' allowed God to work through the shock, the unbelief, the anguish, the agony the despair of losing His beloved wife and family, His perfect Lucifer and His perfect World One world. God had never before experienced failure. He at first did not know how to deal with or how to overcome failure.

"For a complete expanded version or account of the Earth One World, its beginning, its existence, its perfection and its destruction, see My seven-letter series entitled, 'The World That Was,' letters No. 131 through No. 137, posted on my website: www.jimash3.com.

"Now to deal with question number (2): When did the Word become flesh and dwell among us?

"Here is the short version:

"The Word, became flesh immediately after Jesus was baptized in water by John, and not before, an explanation of which was previously alluded to in this letter beginning on page 1 column 2. A complete expanded account of this occurrence may be found on my website in Jim Ash letter No. 138 entitled, 'A major Position Paper For The Church.'

"Now let's deal with the fact that Jesus was indwelt temporarily with the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

"While on the cross Jesus cried out, 'My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me,' God had withdrawn Himself from Jesus so Jesus could bear the eternal sins of mankind and so He could die.

"Then at His death, the spirit and soul of Jesus departed from His body and joined again with the Godhead to descend into the lower parts of the earth to preach to the spirits in prison (See 1 Peter 3:18, 19).

"At that time Hades was a two-compartmented destination for the spirits and souls of the dead. One side was for the unsaved who were tormented in flame. The other side was for the spirit and souls of the saved who were at peace under the authority Abraham. A great fixed gulf divided the two sides so that one could see and converse with those on the other side, but could not pass from one side to the other. See Luke 16:19-31 for the story (a parable) of Lazarus, the rich man and the two-compartmented destination for the dead located in the heart of the earth.

"One other thing Jesus did while in the heart of the earth was to transport the 'saved' compartment to the present third heaven, where it is now located and over which Abraham is still in authority.

"At the end of three days, the spirit and soul of Jesus, together with the three Persons of the Godhead, ascended back to the earth's surface, re-entered the lifeless body of Jesus, whose resurrected bloodless body was no longer subject to physical laws, walked out of the tomb. At His resurrection, the Word became one with the spirit of Jesus eternally so that His name is now called 'The Word of God,' as confirmed in Revelation 19:13.

"Jesus then ascended to the third heaven where He placed His own blood on the mercy seat and sat down at the right hand of God, having completed the first, the most important and the most difficult part of His assignment. It was then that God, the Father, gave Him all authority in heaven and on earth at which time He returned to earth, met His eleven disciples at Galilee and said to them:

"All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. (Matthew 28:18-20)

"It is important to note that this is the first time 'the Son' is included in the Godhead. Previously, the Godhead from the beginning had been God, the Word and the Spirit. Jesus was actually included in the Godhead for the first time when He sat down at the right hand of the Father and was given 'all authority in heaven and on earth.'

It is also important to note that beginning with His resurrection, Jesus became one with the Word eternally so that thereafter, the phrase, In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 'the Son' is always inclusive of 'The Word of God' which became the name of Jesus confirmed by the apostle John in Revelation 19:13.

An entry from Jim's Journal:

"I started what only you may now finish, and you will finish only what I started.

"My Son, that means We are inseparably tied together as ‘twins’ in one sense, or, are two essential parts of the solution of the Father’s New Complete Restoration Gospel Message blessing.

“As you know, the cross cut short My ministry, partly because of the necessity of My death on the cross, but also partly because the Father thought it expedient to pursue the cross, even though it developed somewhat early over the Father’s original plans.

“But then, My door opened another door for you.

“Yes, your door is also essential to the Father’s plan for Us both.

Remember, the Father is the Controller to these events even though I now have all authority in heaven and earth.

“So the Father, dear Jim, is Our Controller to whom We must look and through whom comes both My and your authority.

“You will adjust to this new God Incarnate way of life quickly because of your training.

“I DID NOT BECOME GOD. I, as a human being (cleansed of Satan’s mark of death because the Spirit fertilized the egg in Mary’s womb), trained by the Six Measure Standard, became a vessel in whom was deposited the fullness of the Godhead bodily, in preparation for the cross.

“My Son, God is God. No man may become God, which is an impossible replication. I am the supreme Spirit Being and no one may become Me. I may not be duplicated nor replicated. That is a spiritual (and a physical) misnomer, and an erroneous conclusion drawn from inadequate facts. My Son, you possess the knowledge, the complete adequate facts, from which you and you alone, may draw the correct conclusions to set the record straight. And THIS RECORD needs to be set straight.

“I was the first celibate under the new laws of grace, mercy, peace and love, established in Me by the Father.

“So yes, both you and I have the Father to look to for all blessings to all men, because He is the author and the finisher of His plan to redeem man through man who fell.

“Remember, Jim, that you likewise will also be a physical human being, cleansed retroactively of the Satanic death mark, trained as I was by the Six Measure Standard, to become celibate to serve Me, but to actually serve the Father within Me.

“Yes, you will be looked on as God, but in My life as well as in your new life, that is and that will be a misnomer. As I was, and as I am, you will be a vessel in whom God will deposit Himself in the fullness thereof, to bring about His perfect will on His earth again.

“This changes a lot of theology, as My being God, for example. In My personal visible ministry, I was not God; God was God. I was merely a vessel through whom God, the Father of Us both, chose to begin His long trek toward the reestablishment of the New Complete Restoration Gospel Message blessings now through you.

“My entry into the Godhead, as yours will be, was only a temporary expediency to restore God to His rightful place.

“He is God, Our Father, and as such, MUST be given the complete credit for all good to all men.

“This makes little or no change in the Father’s planning for your entry into Our midst, but just something I wanted you to know.

“The Father MUST be all in all.

“We – you and I – have only been human vessels to expediently accomplish the Father’s plan.

“My precious Jim, the Father was hurt badly by Lucifer’s revolt against Him. But both you and I have been and will be, the means of restoring to the Father His standing – and yes, restoring His self-esteem or His self-righteousness – so the Father may be all in all to once again be Himself.

“You, Jim, know the father as no one else has known Him on the earth during His – or during your – physical existence. Remember that.

“My role was the most important, but your role or work just beginning, or just following Me, is just as essential to complete the Father’s work-plan.

“You, Jim, and Myself, prepared for the cross, are number One and number two on the Father’s love list. I am first because of the cross, but you, Jim Ash, are a close second. We in the Godhead look forward to your joining Us, along with the other two members of your New First Family, even though all four of Us are – have been – will be – temporary additions.

“This has been a review for you prior to your new life now at hand. You know all of this but the review was thought by the Father to be expedient at this time in your life. Both the Father and I look forward to your new transitional entry into Our midst, to accomplish and to complete all necessary work for the Father before the Rapture.

“Yes, as you will be looked on as God, I was looked on as God in My personal visible ministry, but We are only human beings into whom the Father deposited Himself to accomplish His necessary work to restore God, Himself, and mankind to their original perfect beginning.

“All of your preparation has been the Father’s plan from the beginning, and even though I was given all authority in heaven and on earth, that responsibility was overseen and directed by the Father.

“This will help you to handle certain events which will occur when a person wants to worship you as God. Worship God and Him only, is always your answer.

“Faith in Me allowed the Father to do the miracles.

“Worship God. He and He alone is to be worshiped.

“All thirteen of you have met the same qualifications that Jesus met prior to the cross.

Later at 3:45 PM.

Yes, things do look and feel different now, don’t they? They are different, My Son. You are preparing for your ignition and lift-off into an entirely new and different world. Only a small ‘adjustment period’ will be required.

“In all of your life since your mother’s prayers birthed you into existence, you have been Mine. Yes, your over aggressive faith-walk with Me has propelled you into three different objectives for your life – and sure to be four – and more.

“So stay ready. Your new life is about to begin.

A Brief Closing Synoptic Summary

“Jesus of Nazareth was NEVER God; He was God Incarnate. Bible students today conclude He was God because they see as man sees.

“No one may be God but God, Himself. That objective conclusion, however, becomes evident only as one learns to see as God sees. That may occur only as one hears rhema from the mouth of God for a sufficiency of time according to God’s Six Measure Standard. As that occurs, man begins to see God and the bible objectively instead of subjectively. Man today views God and the bible subjectively because he sees as man sees. Only as man learns to hear rhema from My mouth may man learn to see as God sees. When that occurs, man begins to see God and the bible objectively and panoramically from the beginning to the New Jerusalem and beyond.

“As man’s vision changes from the subjective to the objective point of view, only then may he see as God sees. He will then – and only then – fully realize that Jesus of Nazareth was not God. Only God may be God. Jesus of Nazareth was God Incarnate as the most important first step in God’s plan to restore Himself and man to their original beginnings.

“Man’s eyesight became blurred to see subjectively when Lucifer failed. That failure resulted in God’s new beginning with two failures: Adam and Eve on Earth Two.

“God was required to begin with two failures in order to raise up a Messiah from man who fell. From that Seed, from that Messiah, that is, God’s New First Family was raised up to establish God’s New Complete Restoration Gospel Message blessings. The God Incarnate Son born to that Family will complete THE BEGINNING of God’s new family on the earth once again as it was in the Earth One world and as it will be in the New Jerusalem.

“So, in conclusion, it has taken millennia for God to change man back to the perfect beginning in order to first content, satisfy and fulfill God, Himself, while man, himself, male and female, will simultaneously become contented, satisfied and fulfilled.

“Only as man is able to see objectively as God sees, will man see and fully understand that no one may become God. The erroneous conclusion that Jesus of Nazareth became God may only be correctly seen as man learns to hear rhema from the mouth of God for a sufficiency of time according to God’s Six Measure Standard. Thirteen God Incarnate apostles, soon to emerge onto the world scene, are proof that no one may become God.

“In conclusion, Jesus is first, because His work was most important; second is God’s New First Family, all three of whom are God Incarnate, and all four of whom are ‘expediencies’ in God’s plan to restore both God Himself and man, to their new beginnings.
